Ilyssa Ingenthron

Junior, Central Washington University

My name is Ilyssa Ingenthron, and I am attending Central Washington University pursuing a degree in Construction Management with minors in Business Administration and Safety and Health Management.

I worked for a commercial construction company for two years while I did Running Start in High School and decided that construction was the career path I wanted to pursue. I have been around construction my whole life as my dad has built all the homes we have lived in and my cousins own a commercial construction company.

After graduation I hope to work for a commercial construction company, and work on larger size projects. If possible, I would like to work for Hoffman Construction and stay in the Portland area as a Project Manager, but I open to all opportunities that may arise.

In my free time I spend a lot of time at our beach house in Ocean Shores clamming and crabbing. I love to be outside on a boat or hiking through the woods. I also like to spend a lot of time with my family traveling and going to concerts.
